- Comments from Gerald Beasley
LTS Workplace Environment and Wellness Team Update

Michael Fleming, Wendy Kozlowski, Lisa Maybury, Pam Stansbury, Rebecca Utz (Chair), Debra Warfield, Adam Chandler

- The team toured Statler Hospitality and Animal Health Diagnostic Centers and learned about their wellness initiatives.
- Todd Baker (of Cornell’s Musculoskeletal Injury Prevention Program), Mika, Ken, Laurie, and Adam created a training video to reduce risks associated with handling materials. The video was shared with our department plus ARL libraries (via Xin). Watched 241 times already.
- Experimenting with exercise balls and stools for staff to use temporarily as a way to build core strength for better posture.
LTS Workplace Environment and Wellness Team Update

- Acquired additional partitions for LTS staff.
- Ongoing discussions with Jason Guss, a Biomedical Engineering Ph.D. candidate, and his Orthofit startup colleagues about helping them test the glove they are developing to prevent repetitive motion injuries. We are waiting for Orthofit to acquire insurance.
- Changing 110B so that it is better suited to its function as a multi-purpose wellness room for telephone calls, short meetings, light stretching, massage … massage?
LTS Workplace Environment and Wellness Team Update

• During our tour of the Animal Health Diagnostic Center we learned about their innovative on-site medical massage wellness program. The team developed a pilot proposal. Our pilot began January 8 and will run into March. Please sign up if you are interested in trying it. The next two weeks are already booked.
LTS Production Trends
LTS absorbed Mann bindery operations in 2017 and is absorbing HLM bindery operations in 2018.
E-book and other titles total production, 2006 - 2017
Shelf Ready Processing

Library Executive Group approved the gradual transition towards shelf-ready vendor processing for all material received on approval whenever “possible and advisable.”

The goal of this decision is to allow for eventual reductions or reallocations within the Library’s operating budget and, more importantly, to make items received on approval available to patrons more promptly.
Approvals titles added production, 2006 - 2017
Shelf-ready processing includes:

- Cataloging and classification
- Stamping
- Labeling
- Security stripping
- Barcoding
- Batch loading
Shelf Ready Status

- Chinese approval plan
- Chinese large sets
Shelf Ready Status

- Coutts Approval Plan – Spring 2018

Beginning work on:
- Harrassowitz
- Casalini
- Amalivre
What can we in LTS expect?

• Shift from manually handling these materials to quality control

• Focus on other materials

• Continue cross-training
FOLIO

The Future of Libraries is Open
FOLIO Timeline

01 Initial release of the base platform
02 FOLIO developers regularly releasing code

What can we in LTS expect?

• Some of us will be asked to provide feedback on works in progress.
  – discussions about workflow
  – sketches of possible solutions
  – working / but not completed functionality
  – “finished” products in need to real testing

• CUL Implementation? Summer 2019?

Data management, web archiving, linked data (Jason)
Data management

- Online Data Storage Tool

- Expanded Consultation Network

- Data Curation Network
Web archiving

• 2 new collections since last year
  • U.S. Workers' Centers
  • Department of Art Faculty Websites

• Anticipate 2-3 new collections per year

• Indexing for discovery
Linked data

- Ontology development
- Application profiles
- RDF cataloging tool
