

Cornell University

LTS All-Staff Meeting

January 15, 2019

Agenda

- Introduction & Reflections (9:50)
- State of the Units (9:55-10:30)
 - Collections – Kizer
 - FOLIO - Jesse
 - Grant Projects - Jason
 - Looking into 2019/2020 – Xin
- Q&A (10:30-11:00)

Thank You!

2018

- Jim LeBlanc
- Sandy Sinclair
- Tsedal Yeshak

2019

- Teresa Mei
- Carol Snedeker
- Deb Warfield

Contributions

Workplace Environment and Wellness Team

- Adam Chandler, Michael Fleming, Lisa Maybury, Pam Stansbury, Rebecca Utz, Deb Warfield
- New blinds
- 250+ medical massage sessions
- Advocacy for color
- More...

Contributions (cont'd)

Continuing Education Team

- Peter McCracken, Ardeen White, Beth Kelly, Sally Lockwood, Yael Zucker
- Safety First with Chris Manly
- Outlook Web Access (OWA)
- Beyond LTS
- Archival Processing and more...

Contributions (cont'd)

- Metadata Working Group
- LTS Heads
- Individuals

Cornell University

Collections

Collections & Processing

August 2018: Collections → LTS

Director of Collections (KW)

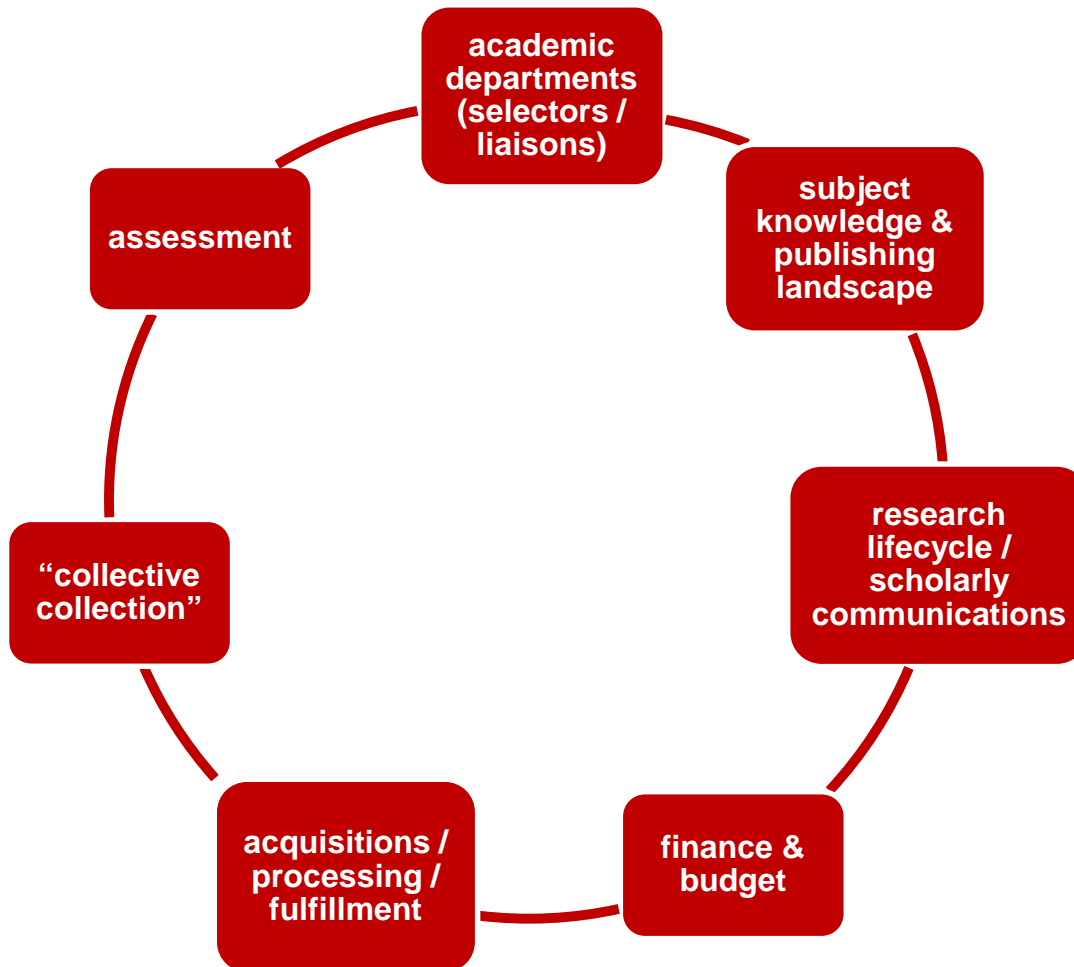

CDExec

Entails:

- Allocation and management of CUL materials budget
- Collection development policy and procedures
- Collection development activity of CUL selectors
- Public face of CUL collection (on campus and externally)
- Collaboration on the “collective collection” (Ivy Plus, 2CUL, etc.)

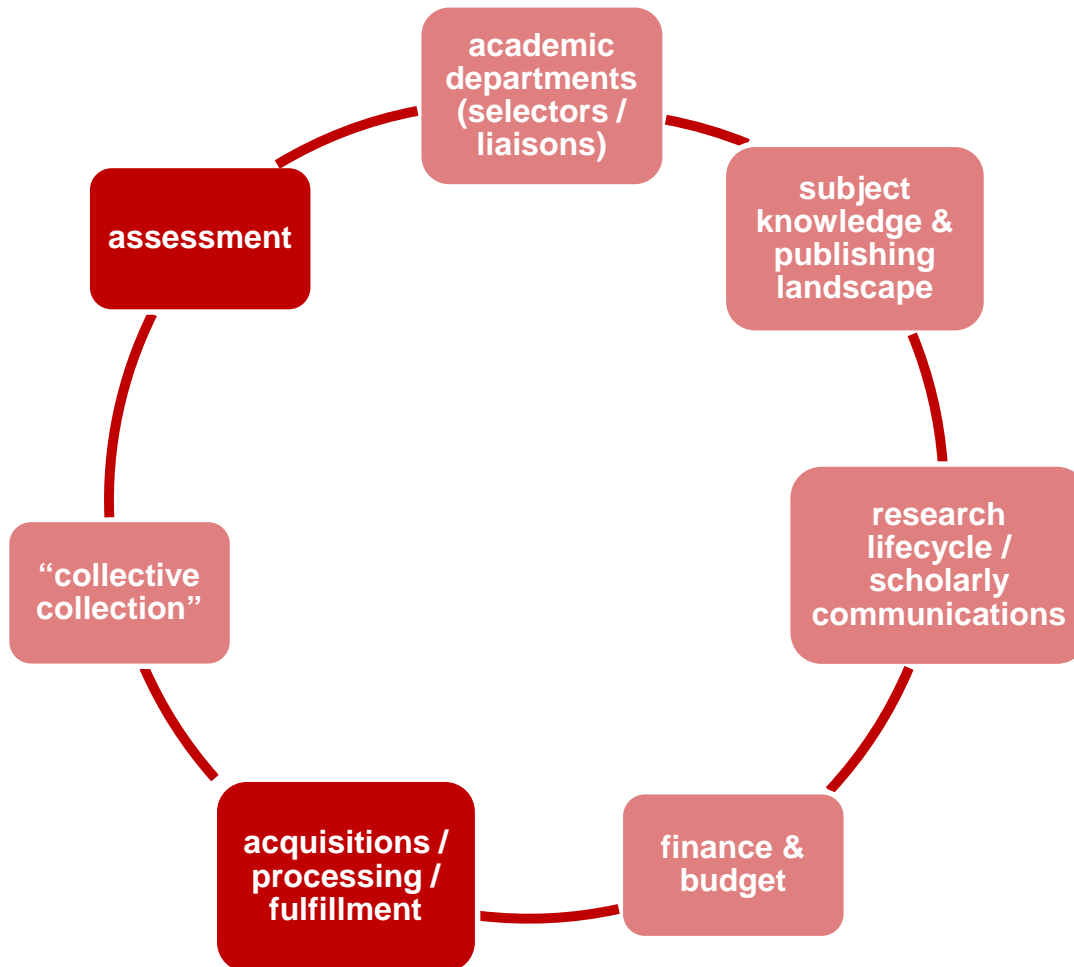

Collections & Processing

Collections & Processing

Collections & Processing

DRAFT Collection Development Principles (as of Nov 2018)

- Timely access to research and learning content for the Cornell community is the Library's first priority in the scholarly resources arena.
- The CUL collection is built for use today and in the future.
- The impact of the CUL collection extends from the local to the global.
- The CUL collection is part of a collective collection.

Collections & Processing

DRAFT Collection Development Principles (as of Nov 2018)

- The CUL collection is part of a research life cycle that spans from investigation to dissemination.
- CUL attends to the preservation and long-term accessibility of its collection.
- The CUL collection is a manifestation of the University's ongoing investment in the scholarly and cultural record, managed through thoughtful and responsible librarianship.

Cornell University

folio future of libraries is open

CUL FOLIO Implementation Summer 2020

- FOLIO capacity planning
 - What needs to be completed before CUL (and others) can implement?
 - When is it needed?
 - How can it all get done?
- CUL implementation process

LTS Involvement

- Metadata Management – Jason Kovari, Sarah Ross, Jenn Colt
- MARCcat – Pam Stansbury, Sarah Ross
- Data Import – Gary Branch
- Resource Access, Reporting – Joanne Leary

LTS Involvement

- Resource Management, ERM, eHoldings – Peter McCracken
- Testing and consulting – Joanna Cerro, Lisa Maybury, Rebecca Utz, Deb Warfield, Yael Zucker
- Product Council – Jesse Koennecke

Cornell University

CUL FOLIO Implementation Project

Created by Confluence Administrator IV, last modified by Holly L. Mistlebauer on Jan 04, 2

Implementation Team Members

Contact Team

- Dean Krafft
- Sharon Beltaine (Reporting)
- Ann Crowley (Finance)
- Jesse Koennecke (Acquisitions; Serials Processing)
- Jason Kovari (Metadata Management; Cataloging)
- Deb Lamb (Resource Access)
- Peter McCracken (eResource Management)
- Simeon Warner, Interim (Infrastructure)
- Mary Beth Martini-Lyons (Discovery)
- Holly Mistlebauer (Project Manager)

<https://confluence.cornell.edu/display/OLE/CUL+FOLIO+Implementation+Project>

Resources

- FOLIO wiki – <https://wiki.folio.org>
- Sprint updates and other videos at the Open Library Foundation YouTube Channel - <https://tinyurl.com/foliovideos>
- CUL Information
- FOLIO First Fridays

Cornell University

Grant Projects

Bambaataa Collection

- Nat'l Endowment for the Humanities
- 2169 LPs cataloged!
- Cataloging is part of broader processing

Thank you & congratulations to:

Roswitha Clark, Beth Kelly, Margaret
Nichols, Tracey Snyder

Freedom on the Move

- NEH DH Advancement Grant
- Building interactive database of self-liberating fugitives from American slavery
- <https://freedomonthemove.org/>
- Jasmine Burns : CUL key personnel

Data Curation Network

- Alfred P. Sloan Foundation
 - Implementation of the Network
- Institution for Museum & Library Services
 - Training for data management & curation
- Wendy Kozlowski : CUL lead

Linked Data for Production : Pathway to Implementation

- Andrew W. Mellon Foundation
- Primary work areas:
 - Sinopia (linked data editor)
 - Lookups and external data reuse
 - Discovery
- Steven Folsom, Jason Kovari, Tracey Snyder (thus far)

Cornell University

Looking into 2019/2020

President's Campaign

- Academic distinction
- Educational verve
- Civic engagement
- One Cornell

CUL's 5 Strategic Focus

- Student experience
- Research lifecycle
- Global impact
- Diversity and inclusion
- Work prioritization

2019/2020

- FOLIO impacts everyone
- Flat materials budget scenario
- Lifecycle perspective
- Departures and opportunities
- Partnerships

- Student experience
- Research lifecycle
- Global impact
- Diversity and inclusion
- Work prioritization

2019/2020

- Time to fulfillment
 - Discovery and access
 - LTS' global impact
 - Organization and skills
 - Prioritization and innovation
 - Users and us
 - Assessment
- Student experience
 - Research lifecycle
 - Global impact
 - Diversity and inclusion
 - Work prioritization

Cornell University

Q&A